Homeless Civil Rights: Myth and Reality

First Amendment:

The myth is...the First Amendment guarantees the freedom of speech, and the freedom to assemble.

Fourth Amendment:

The myth is...the Fourth Amendment guarantees the right of people to be secure in their persons, papers, and effects against unreasonable search and seizure shall not be violated.

Fifth Amendment:

The myth is...the Fifth Amendment guarantees that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law.

(This amendment was so important, it was actually covered twice...by the Fifth Amendment, and again by the Fourteenth Amendment.)

Sixth Amendment:

The myth is...the Sixth Amendment guarantees everyone the right to a speedy, and public trial, and the right to face their accuser(s).

Eighth Amendment:

The myth is...the Eighth Amendment guarantees that excessive bail, or excessive fines shall not be imposed.

Fourteenth Amendment:

The myth is...the Fourteenth Amendment guarantees that all people are entitled to equal protection under the law.
