Last month at PTH...

Our Civil Rights campaign has been involved in the recent Stop Stop & Frisk actions- we joined the rallies against Stop & Frisk at 100 Centre St. on January 17th January 19th (with Jazz Hayden), and at 149th and 3rd Ave. in the Bronx on January 27, 2012 (pictured). Check out February's events for ways to get involved with the new Communities United for Police Reform Coalition.

We released our groundbreaking report, Banking on Vacancy: Homelessness and Real Estate Speculation at Hunter College. January 26, 2012.

The full report is available at picturethehomeless.org/blog/vacancy.

Help us replace our banners!

We lost three of our beloved banners during the illegal eviction of Zucotti Park on November 15, 2011. This month, we launch a Kickstarter.com campaign to defray the cost of replacing them. Stay tuned, and please donate!

February 10th (Friday) and 14th (Tuesday), 1-4pm Youth Drop & Stop

Our Youth Campaign returns to the PTH office with our new Drop & Stop sessions, which provide a space for homeless youth to interact, grab a meal, and have constructive conversations about issues they face and ways to organize for change- contact lamont@picturethehomeless.org for more info.

February 15th (Wednesday)

Communities united for Police Reform (CPR)

Building on our Disorderly Conduct Campaign, PTH's Civil Rights Campaign is participating in TONS of new initiatives to combat the abuses of the NYPD. Join us at the PTH office as we unveil the new Communities united for Police Reform (CPR) coalition, and stop by one of our Civil Rights campaign meetings (Tuesdays at 2pm) to catch up on all of the new developments! Contact lynn@picturethehomeless.org to learn more.

THIS MONTH!

Watch out in early February as our Housing Campaign takes the fight BACK TO THE STREETS and the halls of power, as we use our groundbreaking report to continue fighting to force the city to deal with vacant properties. Contact Adrian@picturethehomeless.org for info.
